

Website Changes

Last Updated Wednesday, 11 August 2010

We have made the following changes to the website to allow easier access for users

Training Courses

The Training Courses section of this website has been moved from Member Resources to a direct link on the left hand side of this screen (directly below Member Resources).

You can also view upcoming courses and meetings in the Events Calendar which is still accessed through member resources.

Educational Resources

This is a new link on the home page and can be used to access the following areas:

Guidelines

Statements

Distance Learning Modules
